HELP WANTED

The position of Executive Secretary of the Masonic Service Bureau will be open on July 1, 2007. This is a paid position. It is necessary to be able to work in Word and Excel. A little knowledge of Quick Books is a big plus. A thorough knowledge of Masonry and the structure of Grand Lodge are required. The applicant must have good public relations skills.

Although this is a paid position, it is not enough to support a person who does not have another source of income. There will be a considerable time spent training the person hired, so please apply right away. Send your resume to the address below.
