“Coming Home” Continues

* * * * *

Did your Lodge see a big turnout for its “Coming Home” Program last month? We hope so! But that was only the first step in reconnecting with your membership. The most important goal is to first make a personal connection with every Brother in your Lodge, and then continue this communication with the inactive Brothers in the future. We need to put forth whatever effort it takes to bring our Brothers back to our Lodges. Don't stop now - make this vision a reality!

ANNUAL PERFORMANCE AT PASADENA SCOTTISH RITE

On March 26th, the play, “Spirit of Hiram” will again be presented, at 8:00 P.M., at the Pasadena Scottish Rite auditorium for all Master Masons. It is the second section of the Third Degree in costume. Our Grand Master will be in attendance at this performance. Refreshments will follow the presentation. Contact 626/795-4213 for more details.

2010 Lodge Masters Welcomed

Fifteen of the Los Angeles area's newly-chosen 2010 Lodge Masters gathered on January 17th at our Service Bureau Meeting in Pasadena, to be recognized and congratulated. The above photo shows this outstanding group of Masons.

You also might enjoy checking our Web Site for other photos of recent Service Bureau events, particularly some very “candid” shots from the 2009 Grand Master's Breakfast.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Notice to Lodges

All information requests from newspapers, magazines, radio, television, and other media are to be referred to Terry Mendez, Director of Communications, at Grand Lodge, tmendez@freemason.org, to coordinate an appropriate response. Inquiries will be responded to as quickly as possible.

Special Scottish Rite Degree

The Los Angeles Scottish Rite Degree Team will visit Pasadena Scottish Rite on Friday, March 5th, to exemplify the 15th Degree. This Team was recognized last year at the Southwest Conference for its outstanding Degree presentation there. All area Scottish Rite Masons are invited to attend.

OPERATION GREATEST GIFT

GRAND MASTER'S PROJECT 2009-2010

Our “Greatest Generation” veterans will soon be traveling together to Washington, D.C. to pay respects to their World War II Memorial. Spring and Fall flights are now being funded and organized through our Grand Masters Special Project, to honor these men who sacrificed so much for us.

Seats are already being filled for April 15 and April 22 flights. There will also be flights in May. If your Lodge has any Masons who are World War II vets and would like to be considered for this trip, it is requested that this be made known to our Grand Lodge Office as soon as possible, through your Lodge Secretary.

Further, there is a need for Masons or non-Masons interested in accompanying these trips as volunteer guardians. Contact Joyce Hahn, Masonic Foundation Coordinator, at 415/292-9139.
