PUBLIC SCHOOLS MONTH EVENT

In April, the Masons and communities in our state celebrate Public Schools Month, now a major initiative of our Fraternity's Strategic Plan. Each year, schools are selected to showcase our support of education and to recognize accomplishments of students and local educators. For our local 2013 kick-off celebration, please join our Grand Lodge Public Schools Advisory Board members at 9:00 AM on April 9th at Cleveland Elementary School in Pasadena, at which time a $79,000 donation will be made to aid Scholarships and "Raising A Reader" Projects within the Pasadena, Burbank and Glendale Districts.

SENIOR WARDENS WELCOME DEPUTY GRAND MASTER

Along with enjoying a delicious Breakfast provided by the staff of the Midnight Mission (a "thank-you" from them for our constant support), the Senior Wardens of Lodges in our Los Angeles area had the opportunity to visit with our Deputy Grand Master, R.W. John Cooper, at the March Bureau Meeting. These attendees were photographed with Victor Lerma, our Board President (left), and our distinguished guest (center), following his presentation of the significant theme for our Grand Lodge next year . . .

L. A. MASONS TO HONOR GRAND MASTER

On April 7th, the Annual Men's Breakfast of our Los Angeles Service Bureau will welcome and honor our 2012-2013 Grand Master, at a sold-out event in the International Ballroom of the Hilton Los Angeles Airport Hotel. It will be the 81st occurrence of this Gathering, which began in 1931, with the attendance expected to be about 700 Masonic brethren.

Most Worshipful John Lowe and a great many of his Grand Family, along with many other Masonic dignitaries, will be filling the three-level head table at the event. Our local Lodges and other Masonic groups have reserved over 65 tables to hear his message.

This Breakfast offers a most opportune event to show off Masonic brotherhood to our new Masons, as well as to listen to inspiring words from our Grand Master on California Masonry and its future. Don't miss it!
