DeMolay Flower Talk Adds Sentiment to Youth Observance

A most touching, and beautifully-presented, rendition of the beautiful “Flower Talk” recitation in the DeMolay ritual, offered by Christian Cross from the Walt Disney DeMolay Chapter in Anaheim (see above), led off our Bureau’s April 14th Meeting honoring the Masonic Youth Orders. Then, to show our continuing appreciation, affection and support for the Masonic Youth Groups in California, our Service Bureau again welcomed and honored three outstanding leaders of the Jobs Daughters, Rainbow and DeMolay youth organizations.

Miss Nicolette Clark, Grand Worthy Associate Advisor, Rainbow for Girls; Kevin Gonzales, Deputy Master Councilor, So. California Jurisdiction DeMolay; and Miss Jessica Anthony, Miss Calif. Jobs Daughters 2012-13, offered beautifully-presented talks describing their lessons and activities, and noting the importance of the guidance and morality they gain from their Masonic associations. In appreciation, monetary donations were given to each youth leader, to support their group projects.
