MEMORIAL DAY

100% Officer Giving Campaign Initiated at Retreats

Relief is one of Masonry's most meaningful, enduring and relevant values. In supporting our California Masonic charities, you are taking responsibility for the long-term well-being of our brothers, families, and the community as a whole.

To enhance our commitment as Masons this year, a special giving program was launched at the Master and Wardens Retreats, asking that 100% of the officers at each Lodge pledge to give to the Annual Fund in 2014. This new Officer Giving Campaign hopes to help ensure and expand our fraternity's charitable assistance and critical service programs so important to so many.

A list of Lodges that have agreed to make and meet this 100% Officer Giving pledge will be identified shortly. Please help them meet this pledge.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

For those Lodges in Division 7, all Masons should plan now to save the date and attend the First Degree Mason's Ritual Seminar to be held at Greenleaf Gardens Lodge 670 on June 18th. The Grand Lecturer will be present. Let your Inspector know that you will attend.

A special Grand Master's Reception and Dinner is being planned by Beverly Hills Lodge 528 on May 27th, with an open discussion on Freemasonry around the World after our GM's return from his recent trips to the Philippines, Austria and Romania. At Ionic Masonic Center. Contact (310) 358-0584.

Webinar Classes are again being offered this spring and summer for Master Masons, covering courses for the Lodge Management Certification Program. Each Class includes two 90 minute Sessions, and the Classes are available from May to August. For details, see the GL Web Site.
