91st Annual Men's Breakfast Reception for our Grand Master.

*(Hilton Lax Airport
5711 w. Century Blvd)*

Worshipful Master and Brethren, please finalize your lodge's plan to attend the upcoming July 21, 2024, Annual Breakfast Reception for our Grand Master, Most Worshipful G. Sean Metroka and recognition of many other leaders of our Concordant and Appendant bodies. Tickets are $400 for a table of 10. You may also reserve a half-table of five for $200. This event will be held at the Hilton LAX, located at 5711 W. Century Blvd, Los Angeles with the social starting at 7 am and the breakfast at 8:15 am.

This event is the largest assembly of Freemasons outside our annual communication of the Grand Lodge. It is a great time to get up close and personal with your grand lodge officers and other Masonic leaders.

Due to the economic times, it is vitally important that your lodge votes to approve the purchase of your table(s) and that your lodge check be sent AS SOON AS POSSIBLE to the Los Angeles Masonic Service Bureau, 16800 Devonshire Street, Suite 101, Granada Hills, CA, 91344.

Please contact our Executive Secretary, WB Sherman Ostrom, at (818) 366-3572 or email him at office@lamsb.org with your questions.

PROSPECT MANAGEMENT

Does your lodge have a Prospect Manager? The annual "Discover Masonry" campaign to introduce a new generation to Freemasonry is underway. The lodge Prospect Manager is a very important and critical facet to the success of this program. To learn more about this program, contact Michael Roberts at (415) 292-9135 or email him at MRoberts@freemason.org.

THE BULLETIN BOARD

DEMOLAY INTERNATIONAL is an organization for young men aged 12 to 21. Young men do not need to have a Masonic relative to join the organization. DeMolay was founded in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1919, and is now international in scope. Like the other Masonic Youth Orders, DeMolay Chapters (local groups) usually meet in a room at a local Masonic Lodge. Adult leadership is provided by men (usually Masons) known as Chapter Dads or advisors. The Order takes its name from Jacques DeMolay, the last Grand Master of the Templars, who was martyred in the Middle Ages for refusing to compromise his honor. The Order teaches the virtues of reverence, love of parents, comradeship, patriotism, courtesy, cleanness, and fidelity. The Order provides many social events and activities, which help to teach social skills and leadership. (<https://beademolay.org>)

THE INTERNATIONAL ORDER OF RAINBOW FOR GIRLS is an organization for young women aged 11 to 20. It was founded in McAlester, Oklahoma, in 1922. No relationship to a member of the Masonic Order is required for membership. Local groups or Assemblies are generally sponsored by either a Masonic Lodge or a Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. Women known as Mother Advisors give adult supervision and guidance. Each of the colors of the rainbow is associated with a particular virtue or source of inspiration. Like the other Youth Orders, Rainbow is deeply involved with local charity and support of education. It teaches character development, planning, leadership, and social skills through training programs and social events. (<https://gorainbow.org>)

JOB'S DAUGHTERS INTERNATIONAL takes its name from a story in the Biblical Book of Job. It was organized in Omaha, Nebraska, in 1920. Membership requires the young woman be related to a Mason, or a majority member; or sponsored by a Mason. The local organization is called a Bethel. The teachings of the Order are Biblically based, and similar virtues are stressed as in the other Masonic Youth Orders. Job's Daughters places special emphasis on community service. Many Bethels work with drug education programs and with the Hearing Impaired Kids Endowment (HIKE) Program. Membership is for young women age 10 to 20. (<https://jobsdaughtersinternational.org>)

The youth organizations are separate and independent organizations that stress the importance of character development, community service and leadership.
